Put yourself in the hands of Brooklands instructors and we'll soon make a pilot of you. You will surprise yourself in two ways. Firstly, you will find how simple it is when you learn the right way; and secondly, you will discover how little it can cost.

As for your safety, have no qualms at all. Every tiny part of every Brooklands machine is kept under constant check. The moment there is the least shadow of doubt about any part at all, it is immediately replaced with a new government certified piece. Chances are never taken.

At the Club house you will meet people after your own heart—genial folk with a lust for the sky and ideas about life worth talking about.

Come down to Brooklands and see for yourself. Investigate this whole business of civil flying. Call us up on the phone for anything you want to know or drop us a line for our booklet B—it's all there in a nutshell.
